STATEMENT BY LIVERMORE MAYOR

In Regard to the Lynching Thursday Night.

UNDESIRABLE NEGRO CITIZEN

Violated the Law and Was Unlawfully Put to Death."

CITIZENS REGRET MOB'S ACTION

Mr. V. P. Morton, mayor of Livermore, Ky., has issued the following statement in regard to the lynching of a negro there last Thursday night, fuller details of which appear on the third page of the Her ad to-

"Clarence Mitchell, a white man, entered a pool room, used and managed by colored people, and was ordered out by the colored manager, the victim of the mob, and after Mitchell had gone out, some words were passed. The negro, who was in charge of the pool room, shot two shots at Mitchel, one taking effect, and which was at the time reported fatal. The negro ran to the opera house of J. D. Mitchel for protection. The city marshal was soon on the ground and had the negro under arrest, and a guard of five or six men

"The sheriff was at once notified iaby the mayor of the city, and others, as there were probably about fifty people assembled at the entrance of the opera house.

"Everything was done that the mayor, marshal and other cool-headed citizens could do to keep down the mob, but before the sheriff arrived, it was not thought safe to attempt to take the negro from the lock-up, which was only a short distance away, and a short while before he did arrive, about fifteen men sprung the door open enough to break the bolt, entered the room the negro, then hand-cuffed, were. Up to that time it was thought best to have no light in the room, but the mob lighted matches and rushed SHORTAGE IS UNPAIDpast the guards and shot the negro twice, he being instantly killed. PROTEST AGAINST SENTENCE GIVEN MELVIN GRANT

Barretts Ferry, Ky., Apr. 22.-Editors Herald:-A large number of the citizens, and especially the parents, have requested me to write, giving their disapproval of the mild sentence given Melvin Grant for the criminal assault on little Olivia Harrison. They think the parents of the child should have been allowed in the grand jury room and that the jury should have made a full investigation of the case before returning the indictment. He was allowed to plead guilty to an entirely different charge from that committed, without notifying the child's father.

Now, the fact is, he ran the child nearly a mile before he caught her, tian Women's Board of Missions. and then, after choking her nearly to death, committed his fiendish act and fled to the woods. The citizens or posse spared his life, believing that justice would be given him and the horrible deed avenged.

Here is a sweet little girl whose pathway was all sunshine and flowers, which is now blighted, and the fond parents filled with grief which time alone can eradicate.

OHIO PLUMBER'S INSANE ACT

Youngstown, Ohio, April 20 .- Six lives were the toll of the night's work which Grant G. Rickert, a plumber, who feared he was going blind, performed with ax and hatchet when he slaughtered his wife Cecelia, aged 40, whom he shot, and his children, Charlotte, aged 15; Helen, aged 13; Pearl, aged 10, and Raymond, aged 8, and lastly, him-after he had been struck on the back of the head with the bloody hatchet. He escaped to a neighor's and there gave the alarm, but too late to save his mother and his little brothers and sisters, whom the police found scattered from the ground floor to the top floor (dead or dying.

Then the insane man shot himself and fell dying, the revolver still in his grasp, the bloody hatchet scarcely beyond his finger tips.

Rickert started with the babe beside the mother and fought against her to accomplish its death, and then killed the mother herself.

Raymond, the baby, was hit twice on the side of the head with the hatchet, and died at the City Hospital this morning, his skull frightfully crushed.

The mother, shot in the left side of the head just above the ear, was killed instantly.

The maniac then proceeded to the second story, where the other children slept. He encountered Edwin. the seventeen-year-old boy, who received three scalp wounds from the hatchet and threw up his hands to ward off others, throwing his father downstairs and succeeding in escaping to a neighbors, but in a frightful condition.

13, respectively, lay in a bed at the top of the stairs. The former was struck on the left temple with the hatchet and a bullet sent through blow over the left ear from the hatchet.

Pearl, aged 10, was in her bed by herself. A hatchet blow back of the head and a hullet which nenetrated her head through her left cheek eneder her life. She lived until this morning, as did Raymond.

The father was always considered "queer" during the 21 years he had lived here. He was an able journeyman plumber, but could not keep his jobs. He went into business for himself, but was not successful.

His wife, slaving for the family, baked bread for the neighbors in order to keep herself and the children and send them to school. Three were in the high school.

Rickert wrote a note giving the fear of approaching blindness and financial worries as the cause for the deed. Another letter he left on the Coroner. The first was to his brothtained an insurance policy for $2,-000, $15 in cash and some few notations. Here is the letter he wrote jury. to the Coroner:

"Mr. Coroner: I have a dozen good reasons for doing such a terrible deed. To sum up, I dread the future for my wife and children. For five years I have had ulcerated eyes and I dread going blind. alhoun, Ky., April 20 .- The lits opera house at Livermore, eight miles from here, never witnessed such a melodrama as was staged there at 8:30 o'clock to-night when Will Potter, a negro, was dragged before the footlights and his body riddled with bullets from the guns of an audience of half a hundred determined avengers. Of about 200 shots fired, nearly half entered the body of the black man, and the remainder tore to shreds the woodland scenery, arranged for the presensation of a more mild drama.

While the mob was doing its work in the playhouse, Frank Mitchell, 22 years old, lay at the home of hisfather with his life blood ebbing from a ragged hole in his chest, where a bullet from the negro's gun cratic primary election for the office had entered, piercing one of his of Governor of the Commonwealth has no foreign trade to speak of, so lungs. At a late hour, physicians held out no hope for the recovery of the young white man.

ETERNAL REVOLUTIONS THERE

A Country Where No White Person is Allowed to Own Land.

Haiti, that big West Indian island, or half-island, is once again in the throes of a "terrible" revolution.

It is probably the most turbulent country in the world. Out of its THT HIGHEST INTEGRITY last 27 Presidents, 23 had either to flee for their lives or were assassinated or killed in battle.

> It used to be a French possession, and a mangled French is still spoken there: but for the last century or so it has been an independent black republic, The Haitians believe themselves to be the most civilized nation on earth, but it is a comic opera kind of civilization. The cities, for instance, are fitted up for electric lights, but the electricity does not work, and nobody tries to make it. Haiti is so shiftless that it there are very few whites on the island. The few who do live there keep very quiet, for Haiti despises lecting there.

No white person is allowed to own land. This law alone is sufficient to lection there.

Haiti used to be known as the land of the Dukes with the absurd names. Some 60 years ago it started a peerage, and every peer chose the name whose sound struck his Duke of Marmalade, another the Duke of Lemonade. There was also

But the peerage has been abolished. Nowadays Haiti is chiefly known as the land of Generals. The latest statistics-which, Haiti fashion, are 20 years old-show an army consisting of 6,500 privates, 7,000 regular officers and 6,500 Generals. THE REAL REASON WHY

Many Americans Going There Are of the "Undesirable Citizen" Class.

According to Rt. Rev. Henry D. Aves, Episcopal Bishop to Mexico, one of the principal reasons why 'the Gringo" is cordially detested by the Mexicans is because not one can capital which have exploited the land of Diaz and the guitar has placed in that country an institution for the improvement of the illiterate multitude of peons.

Bishop Aves might have gone further in his analysis and added that another, and probably far more potent reason, is the supercilious attitude which too many Americans have assumed in Mexico. He points out that 11,000,000 of Mexico's 15,-000,000 people are poor, that they have seen vast concessions granted by their Government to their "rich, proud brother of the North," and that they have inwardly revolted at what seems to them rank injustice. They have seen Americans grow rich at Mexico's cost while they have remained at the bottom of the social scheme, "working for a pittance and living in ignorance and discomfort."

For years it has been a standing joke among Americans living in Mexico to ask of newly arrived citizens from the States. "When are you going back?" The point is that numbers of Americans who have gone to Mexico dare not return home because of troubles left behind. "Better free in Mexico than When in need of a cough medicine

WIDE RANGE OF ENTICEMENTS

Iloilo is an island located in the water (salt water). It is a part of the Island of Panay, which is also surrounded by salt water (aqua salo). The island is bordered on one side by a stone wall and on the other side by bamboo shacks. These are placed there to keep the island from being washed away in the aforesaid salt water. Iloilo is best known for its claim as the second city. Every one knows it's the second city, because every one says it is. A stranger, after looking it over, remarks. "God help the third city." TALLEST BRITISH SOLDIER IS BUT A BOY IN AGE

Private H. Harter, who has just joined the First Battalion Grenadier Guards, is only 18 years of age, but stands 6 feet 81/4 inches in his stockings, and is still growing. He is said to be the tallest soldier in the British Army.

"My father, who is a Devonshire farmer, is," he says, "6 feet 5 inches, and my mother is 5 feet 10 inches, so I think it must be hereditary. I have lived nearly all my life in the country. I am doing two hours a day in a gymnasium and about three hours' drill, so that in a month or two I ought to reach 6 feet 91/2 inches. I have smoked since I was 14, or I do not know how tall I should have been."

Formerly Major Oswald Ames, of the Second Life Guards, who is 6 feet 71/2 inches, was said to be the tallest soldier in the army .- [London Mail.

Pale-Faced Women

You ladies, who have pale faces, sallow complexions, dark circles under eyes, drawn features and tired, wornout expressions, you need a tonic.

The tonic you need is Cardui, the woman's tonic. It is the best tonic for women, because its ingredients are specifically adapted for women's needs. They act on the womanly organs and help to give needed strength and vitality to the worn-out womanly frame.

Cardui is a vegetable medicine. It contains no minerals, no iron, no potassium, no lime, no glycerin, no dan-gerous, or habit-forming drugs of any kind. It is perfectly harmless and safe, for young and old to use.

The Woman's Tonic

"After my doctor had done all he said he could for me," writes Mrs. Wm. Hilliard, of Mountainburg, Ark., "I took Cardui, on the advice of a friend, and it helped me so much. "Before taking Cardui, I had suffered from female troubles for five years, but since taking it, I am in good health. "I think there is some of the best advice in your book that I ever saw." Your druggist sells Cardui. Try it.

How Old People May Prolong Their Lives

At advanced age the organs act more slowly than in youth. Circulation becomes poor, blood thin and watery, appetite fitful, and digestion weak. This condition leaves the system open to disease such as Coughs, Colds, Grippe, Pneumonia, Rheumatism, etc.

VINOL is the greatest health creator and body builder we know of for old people, as it supplies the very elements needed to rebuild wasting tissue and replace weakness with strength.

HERE IS THE PROOF A case is recorded in Albany, N. Y., of woman who felt she was breaking own by age and was doomed to the eak and feeble condition of old people. It had no strength and the slightest extion tired her, but VINOL made her ell and strong, and she states that she els ten years younger than she did before taking VINOL.

We ask every aged person in this neighborhood to try a bottle of VINOL with the understanding that we will return their money if it does not prove beneficial.

CITIES SHOW LARGEST GAINS

Towns and Villages Fail to Keep Step In March of Progress, Many Being Almost Entirely Depopulated by Movement Toward Larger Centers of Population-Maysville Is Only Place of Importance That Slipped a Cog, Having Fewer People Within Her Borders Than in 1900.

Washington, D. C .- (Special.) -E. Dana Durand, chief director of the census department, has made public the figures showing the population of every city, town and village in Ken-

These figures show that the Blue Grass state has 58 cities, seven of which-Louisville, Lexington, New port, Paducah, Owensboro, Henderson and Frankfort-have population in excess of 10,000. Eleven cities have population ranging from 5,000 to 10, 000. They are, in order of size, as follows: Hopkinsville, Bowling Green Ashland, Middlesboro, Winchester, Dayton, Bellevue, Maysville Mayfield Danville and Richmond. There are 300 towns and 31 villages, making a total of 389 incorporations.

Analysis of the figures shows that Kentucky, like her sister states o the middle west, has grown citified during the past decade, in other words the tide of migration has been from the rural districts and smaller towns toward the larger centers o population. In many of the villages the population is below the 190 mark. In the cities of between 5,000 and 10,000 Maysville is the only on that failed to keep step in the march of progress. The population returns will be used as the basis for changing ward bound aries in every incorporated municipality in Kentucky and may be used by boards of education to change the school districts. These figures also will be used in redistricting the state

WORKING WITH GOLD.

Factories In Which Dark Colored

Clothes Must Be Worn. Light suits of clothes are not favored in factories where work is done on gold. In fact, in many such factories a dark suit of clothes is absolutely required, and even a light waistcoat may lose a man a job. The reason for this is that any stray grains of gold that may get on the clothing can easily be caught on a dark suit, while they might get away from the establishment if light clothes were worn.

That such a rule was enforced among gold workers one man learned recently when a Bohemian gold beater applied to him for a helping hand. The Bohemian said that he had only recently come to this country, that he had had a chance to obtain a good job at his trade, but that the place had been refused him because he turned up with a light coat and waistcoat on, and they were the only clothes he had.

The man whom he approached was struck by the story and offered to help er is John Dam, 45 years old. He bim out if it proved true. bled For Their Lives.

In times past the military code in England was no less stern and uncompromising than the civil. Sentence of death was readily decreed and as promptly executed. Where offenses multiplied and wholesale executions would have weakened the army numerically decimation—the slaughter of every tenth man-was the rule, or the troops gambled for their lives by casting dice upon a drumbead or drawing lots under the gallows tree.

Lesser penalties-not capital, but physical, and causing pain with permanent degradation-were maiming, branding the cheek or forehead, boring the tongue or cutting the nose and ears. These last named were retained upon the military statute book until the reign of Queen Anne. The "trappado" was a flendish device by which a delinquent was hoisted on high by a rope fastened to his arms and then dropped down by a sudden jerk that often dislocated his shoulders. Hanging by the thumbs, sometimes called "picketing." was also practiced, while the body was raised to such a height that its whole weight rested on one weights fastened to the extremities. Running the gantlet, or "gante lope," was as old as the Cromwellian army, and it is thus described in an army order about 1649: The culprits (who had been guilty of blasphemy as well as deer stealing) were to be "stripped naked from the waist upward and a lane made by half the lord general's regiment of foot and half Colonel Pride's, with every man a cudgel in his hand. They were to be run through in this posture so that every soldier might have a stroke at their naked backs, breasts or arms wherever it might alight."-Pearson's.

To "ride the wooden horse" was to be mounted on a razor edge, with

The poultry business of this county having grown to such enormous proportions. we realized last season that in order to get the best results from its sale, some concern who had the ability to handle and the prestige and influence to get the best price, must take a special interest in marketing the farmers' surplus. We believed that we were the concern who could do it. We believe we have fully demonstrated to the farmers that we have made a phenomenal success. Wednesday and Thursday, April 12 and 13, we loaded two big cars and had onehalf car still in our warehouses, waiting for another car to arrive. FARMER FRIENDS, this sounds like you are progressing. Let's start in now with a determination to produce more stuff along every line, and remember that we love to work for you and that we are always at your service. This same prestige in connection with the almighty dollar gets the lowest price on the merchandise we sell. We make our price to everybody and that price is the lowest that is consistent with legitimate merchandising. Everybody is placed on an equal footing at this store, whether we buy or whether we sell. We do the best we can for the farmer who wants to sell as well as the farmer who wants to buy. We can be of service to you.
